Drone U6Q Dual Channel Smart Fast Charger3000W/60A

Dual channel charging:

The dual-channel system allows two batteries to be charged simultaneously, greatly reducing downtime between drone flights. Each channel operates independently and can simultaneously charge different types or sizes of batteries without compromising speed or efficiency.

3000W High power output:

The charger has a total output of 3,000 W, which is enough to charge the largest, most power-hungry batteries. Each channel can deliver up to 60A of current, making it one of the fastest chargers available for high-capacity batteries. This makes it suitable for drones that require large batteries to extend flight time or carry heavy loads, including industrial drones.

Smart charging technology:

The charger may be equipped with advanced smart charging technology that automatically detects the battery type and adjusts the voltage, current, and charging profile to ensure efficient and safe charging.

The battery balance of multiple cells ensures that all batteries are charged evenly, which is crucial for maintaining battery health and performance, especially for lithium polymer batteries.

According to user needs, it can also support a variety of charging modes such as fast charging, balanced charging, and energy storage charging.
